

Answer to the Medical Quiz

Question 1.

- a) A parotid abscess
- b) Mumps
- c) Staphylococcus aureus

Question 2.

- a) Meconium is being passed per urethrum
- b) A rectourethral fistula complicating anorectal agenesis
- c) Poor

Question 3.

- a) The abnormality is a dimple over the tibia and fibula
- b) It is characteristic of hypophosphatasia, a rare condition due to deficiency of alkaline phosphatase which results in failure of calcification of all bones

Question 4.

- a) A rectal prolapse
- b) This should alert the clinician to consider cystic fibrosis
- c) Treatment is by gentle manual replacement if this does not occur spontaneously