

Evaluation of Social Needs Among Orphan Students in AL- Qadisiyah City / Iraq

Dalal Zamat Hamza, MSc* Qahatan Hadi Hussien, PhD

ABSTRACT

Objective: To evaluation of social needs among orphan students in AL- Qadisiyah city /Iraq.

Material: A quantitative research, descriptive correlational design study was carried out among Orphans Students of Secondary Schools in AL- Qadisiyah Governorate for the period from 13een March 2022 to 1st December 2022. The sample consist of (200) elementary orphans' students of secondary schools in AL- Qadisiyah Governorate, Iraq were participated in the study. A non-probability sampling (convenience sample). The researcher selected (5%) from each the number of martyrs of terror victims, the total sample became consisted (200).

Results: The results the descriptive analysis of demographic variables reveals that 59.5% of orphan students are female while remaining are males.

Conclusion: The current study demonstrated that more than one-third of orphan students were Second school stage. This finding inconsistent with a study established demonstrated that more than two thirds of orphan children were in (5-8) school stage.

Keywords: Evaluation, Social needs, Orphan students

Bahrain Med Bull 2023; 45 (3): 1615 - 1617

* Community Health Nursing
College of Nursing
Babylon University
Babylon Province-Iraq.
E-mail: dalal22d1@gmail.com

 Family and Community Health Nursing
Babylon University
Babylon Province-Iraq.